Creative Extremism God's lens

This study was inspired by a letter Martin Luther King Jr. wrote from a Birmingham jail in 1963.

LEARN: Overview

Biblical Business Training (“BBT”) equips people to grow in the grace and knowledge of Jesus Christ and empowers leaders in a small-group Bible study setting to apply Biblical principles at work. Our mission is Faith for Work – and our vision is Leadership for Life!

Curriculum: The BBT 1-2-3™ Format

BBT's curriculum is Biblically-based and applicable the day you study it. The BBT 1-2-3™ format enables the group to consistently fit a meeting into a busy work week (e.g. before work or over a lunch hour, etc.). The Agenda and Recap are sent through Go!Connect to help group members prepare and continue discussion for accountability.

Agenda – Introduces applicable Biblical principles

Group Leader Guide – Facilitates discussion and allows for shared leadership

Recap – Encourages community and application

LIVE: Apply Biblical principles at work

Small group discussion begins typically with prayer, reading the Agenda together for context, then reading scripture and discussing the included questions. Questions are chosen to help the members in the study apply the scripture to their workplace and lives through group discussion. The Application Question is for group application and accountability between meetings.

Sample discussion question: Read Nehemiah 7:1-3. What do these verses teach you about delegation?

Sample application question: In what areas of your life have you been encouraged to do some humble self-evaluation and practice repentance?

LEAD: Start a small-group Bible study

The Lead question is for holistic life application at work, home, church, and in the community.

Sample lead question: Ask Yourself: How can I have the courage to face opposition, engage in necessary confrontation, and encourage others where God has placed me?

ROADMAP

This BBT volume of curriculum is based on Martin Luther King Jr.'s letter written from a Birmingham jail in 1963. If everyone would seek to understand each other through God's lens of love, truth, and goodness, we can rise above.

LEARN

When they criticized Jesus and the Disciples, Jesus pointed out the Pharisees that He was influencing the world for the better rather than using his influence to hold people down. Jesus assured His followers that freedom is found in Him. Jesus took action when he saw the way that God's temple had been distorted and perverted for gain.

LIVE

- Creative Influence
- Considerable Freedom
- Calculated Action

Application Question: How will you more closely examine the world around you to gain perspective and understanding this week?

LEAD

Ask Yourself: Through what lenses do I see the world, and how does that impact my actions or responses?
